

Barrier activity

Students are placed into groups of three or four. Each group is given an identical set of (eight to ten) pictures.

The groups are labelled Group A and Group B. Half the groups are scribes while the other half are listeners.

Group A look at each image carefully and note the similarities and differences in each image. While Group B listen carefully in order to match the picture with the description.